

Brandon Hosken
Louis Mott
Frederick Pilkington

Cryptocurrency Trading Practice App:

1. As a beginner trader I need to have fake currency to trade with, so I enter the amount a fake currency I want in the "give currency" field.
2. As a beginner trader, I want to see real time cryptocurrency charts, so I choose the chart of the currency I want to display using a drop down box.
3. As a beginner trader I want to be able to change the timeframe of the chart data, so I choose the timeframe using a drop box.
4. As a beginner trader I want to be able to trade in different currencies, so I choose the currency using a drop down box.
5. As a beginner trader I want to be able to buy cryptocurrency at market value, so I enter the amount I want to buy and confirm the trade.
6. As a beginner trader I want to be able to sell my cryptocurrency at market value, so I enter the amount I want to sell and confirm the trade.
7. As a beginner trader, I want to see my past trades, so I open up the trade history window.
8. As a beginner trader, I want to be able to see my portfolio, so I open the portfolio window.